Art Unit: 3634

Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 1, line 13, the phraseology "abnormal mode" is not readily understood by the Examiner. Specifically, what is meant by "abnormal". In claim 1, line 16, there is a lack of antecedent basis for "the brake". In claim 3, line 4, the phraseology "the former" is not readily understood by the Examiner. In claim 8, line 3, it appears that "a pull chain" should be –said pull chain--.

Claims 1-13 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Claims 14 and 15 are allowable.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. U.S. patent to Hsieh discloses a motor/manual operated door assembly similar to that of the applicant's invention. U.S. patent to Shea discloses a motor/manual operated door assembly similar to that of the applicant's invention. U.S. patent to Balli et al. disclose a motor/manual operated door assembly similar to that of the applicant's invention. U.S. patent to Wardlaw discloses a motor/manual operated door assembly similar to that of the applicant's invention. U.S. patent to Liu discloses a motor/manual operated door assembly similar to that of the applicant's invention.
